

Which of the following do you think are the most valid and important ways to measure how well a school serves students?
(CHOOSE SIX)

Answered: 397 Skipped: 0

High graduation rates

High teacher/ staff retention

Variety of extracurricular programs

Dual language programs

Student satisfaction

Educator/ staff satisfaction

Parent/ family satisfaction

Strong school culture/ climate

Diversity of the student body

Teacher diversity

Teacher certification and experience

Specialized programs like arts, STEM, outdoors, experiential learning

Students report strong relationship with staff

Student safety

AP and college preparation programs (for HS)

Social and emotional focus

Principal leadership and retention

Modern facilities

Sports programming

High standardized test scores

Strong growth in standardized tests scores

Strong student grades

Low suspension rate

Support for students with disabilities

Support for English Language Learners

Restorative Justice approach (vs. punitive discipline)

Choices	Response percent	Response count
High graduation rates	22.42%	89
High teacher/ staff retention	34.26%	136
Variety of extracurricular programs	22.17%	88
Dual language programs	12.85%	51
Student satisfaction	32.24%	128
Educator/ staff satisfaction	27.20%	108
Parent/ family satisfaction	38.79%	154
Strong school culture/ climate	39.55%	157
Diversity of the student body	20.15%	80
Teacher diversity	24.18%	96
Teacher certification and experience	13.10%	52
Specialized programs like arts, STEM, outdoors, experiential learning	36.78%	146
Students report strong relationship with staff	27.71%	110
Student safety	30.48%	121
AP and college preparation programs (for HS)	12.34%	49
Social and emotional focus	29.72%	118
Principal leadership and retention	15.37%	61
Modern facilities	17.63%	70
Sports programming	8.56%	34
High standardized test scores	9.32%	37
Strong growth in standardized tests scores	18.64%	74
Strong student grades	13.85%	55

Low suspension rate	14.86%	59
Support for students with disabilities	34.76%	138
Support for English Language Learners	15.62%	62
Restorative Justice approach (vs. punitive discipline)	26.20%	104